

ABSTRACT

Women refugees have to suffer a great deal of hardships in their daily lives. They are always a target of molestation, harassment, physical abuse by camp officers, husbands and even soldiers at times. To stop such gender biasness, UNHCR and other agencies have raised awareness programs to stop such acts against women and to help the refugees all around the world by providing various services and helping them lead a better life.

PROBLEMS FACED BY REFUGEES AND SERVICES PROVIDED BY DIFFERENT ORGANIZATIONS

PROBLEMS FACED

- Women face molestation
- Victims of domestic violence
- Suffer from depression
- Work tirelessly to feed their families

ASSISTANCE PROVIDED

- Organizations join hand to help refugees
- Provide medical support
- Provide other amenities like food, clothes shelters, transportation services and so on

CONCLUSION

Women suffer much more than they deserve. They bear to such an extent that even if they want to raise voices against the ongoing problems, they are so mentally exhausted and even lose of hope makes them feel hopeless. Non profit organizations such as UNHCR, Amnesty International etc are the organizations that fights for justice against women rights. They provide various possible solutions to the refugees from all over the world including food, transport and they also help them to resettle and lead a better life in the future.

REFERENCES

<http://www.unhcr.org/what-we-do.html>,
<https://undg.org/wp-content/uploads/2015/11/10-UN-Women-Gender-Assessment-of-Refugee-Crisis-2015.pdf>,
<https://www.globalfundforwomen.org/women-and-the-refugee-crisis/>,